

PRINCIPAL K. M. KUNDNANI COLLEGE OF PHARMACY

(GOVT. AIDED, PCI APPROVED, ACCREDITED BY NBA & AFFILIATED TO UNIVERSITY OF MUMBAI)
Plot No. 23, Jote Joy Building, Rambhau Salgaonkar Road, Cuffe Parade, Mumbai-400005.

Title: Guru Purnima Celebration.

Date: 22/07/24

Name of the speakers for elocution competition:

1. Bhavika Sapkal Final year B.Pharm student
2. Shifa Khatri: T. Y. B. Pharm student
3. Adi Purav: S Y. B. Pharm student

Affiliation: Students of Prin. K.M. Kundnani College of Pharmacy, Cuffe Parade, Mumbai 05

No of student attendees: Faculties: 25 Students: 50

Content:

Objective: Marathi Sanskriti Katta on occasion of Guru Purnima arranged an event to honor teachers, express gratitude towards them, and to inculcate ethical and moral values of respect and courtesy towards Gurus.

Program Description: To Celebrate Guru Purnima Divas, a series of events were conducted beginning with Sarasvati vandana and lighting of lamp by Principal Madam Dr. Rajani Athawale with teaching and nonteaching staff members which was followed by traditional welcome dance by students and then speech, Elocution Competition (Language: Hindi/Marathi) on topic: "Guru is a must in life". Students of all the years participated in elocution competition where they expressed their feelings towards guru and importance of mentor in life with mention of stories of great Indian gurus. All teaching and nonteaching members were felicitated by floral greetings and a pen. All students and faculties with staff members enthusiastically participated in the Event. MSK in charge Dr. Mrinal Sanaye expressed Vote of thanks at the end of the program.

Outcome: Students understood the importance of Guru in life and following the path shown by the teachers always leads to a better life. They also understood that any person who embodies the sacred wisdom and guides through their knowledge to nurture one's life is a real Guru.

Photos:

