

REPORT ON THE ACTIVITY HELD TO COMMEMORATE 75 YEARS OF THE ADOPTION OF CONSTITUTION OF INDIA ON 26TH NOVEMBER 2024

As per the circular received from The Higher and Technical Education Department, Government of Maharashtra regarding the reading of the preamble of the Constitution of India on November 26th 2024 in the “Amrit Mahotsav Year” of the Constitution to increase its awareness as well as the constitutional rights and duties among students, a presentation to students was held detailing the formation of the constitution, its architect, framing, history, philosophy, its preamble, parts, articles, amendments, schedules and appendices. The students were explicitly explained about the Fundamental Rights and Duties given by the Constitution to every citizen of India in Article 51A of the Constitution. This article enumerates the fundamental duties of citizens, and reflects the solemn commitment to the Constitution and the values it enshrines.

The students were also administered an oath to uphold and abide by the Constitution of India as outlined in Article 51A of the Indian Constitution in English and Marathi by Dr. Vandana Panda. Along with students, some faculty, viz., Ms. Akanksha Singh, Mr. Pavan Singh, Mr. Harshal Patodkar, Mr. Vinayak Gaikwad and Ms. Ruchita Gandhi, also took this oath. The students thus got a better understanding of our unique constitution.
